

Panorama's First 100 Days Survey

A Tool for New Superintendents to Empower
Informed and Effective Strategic Planning

Understand school community needs and build a foundation of stakeholder trust with Panorama.

Newly hired superintendents face the daunting challenge of quickly gathering essential information to understand the unique needs of their stakeholders and building trust with the communities they serve. Panorama's First 100 Days Survey empowers leaders embarking on listening tours by capturing comprehensive feedback from students, teachers, central office staff, families, and community members, ensuring strategic plans are grounded in relevant, high leverage insights.

Leverage Research-Backed Surveys for Key Stakeholder Groups

Students

- "What are two things your school does really well?"

Teachers + In-School Staff

- "What are 1-2 things that your school should work to improve?"

Principals

- "Overall, how positive is the working environment at your school?"

Central Office

- "To what extent are staff trusted to work in the way they think is best?"

Families + Community Members

- "What are the most important things for your school district to focus on, for it to be successful over the next several years?"

Panorama's First 100 Days Survey

Hassle-free survey administration and project management support

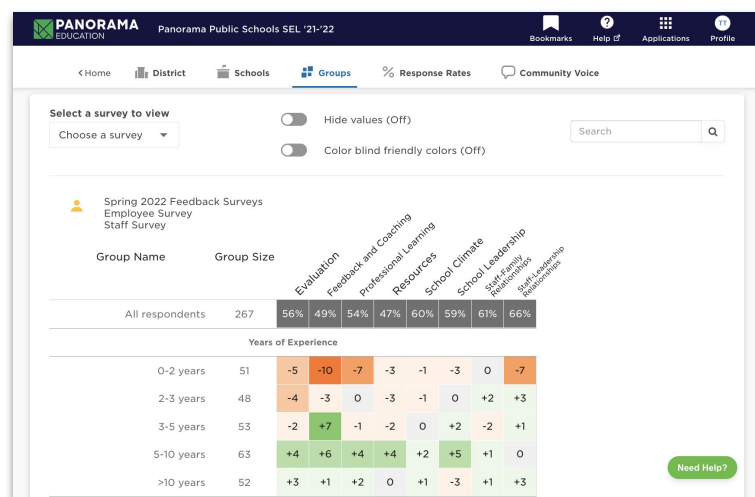

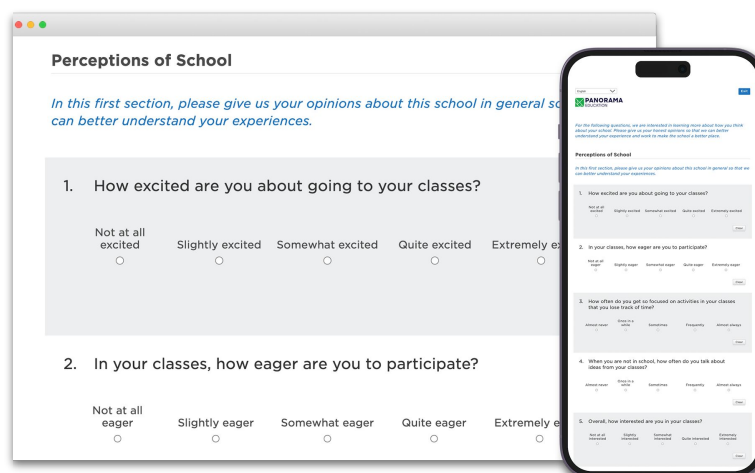

Our flexible, proprietary technology helps you securely run your survey online or on paper to simplify implementation options for stakeholders and lower costs. A dedicated project manager will also help you strategize around targeted reminders and other methods to boost responses.

Collaborative support from Panorama's strategic advisors

Strategic advising pairs districts and school leadership with a dedicated Panorama expert to guide the process of gathering stakeholder feedback, analyzing results, and using data to drive system-level improvements. Strategic advising supports for the First 100 Days Survey include developing goals and vision, data-based action planning, technical guidance, and more.

Elevate and align student, family, staff, and community voices

Panorama's research-backed surveys empower new superintendents to drive school improvement with valid and reliable feedback from key stakeholders. Our survey dashboards provide in-depth reports so you can quickly compare to national benchmarks, understand experience gaps, and identify strengths and areas for growth.
